

Judge Introduction

Mrs Jennifer Watt

Civil professional and other hobbies besides dogs, if you wish to answer

Qualified senior vet nurse – a position I have held for around 15 years – no other hobbies (no time really).

Your own breeds

Chihuahua's were my first breed that I purchased and I have been breeding them for over 30 years under my "Wachowa" prefix. Chihuahua long and smooth coats are all that I have bred, but however I have had breed interest - either show or owned - miniature pinschers, lowchens, great danes & dobermanns.

Your own breeding work

Have bred with my own lines in Australia until recently, I have imported some new bloodlines from Japan (Peregrine), Italy (Misty Meadows), Usa (Dazzles).

Awards and merits in the dog world

Australia's #1 chihuahua kennel consecutively since 2009, with the top chihuahua both long and smooth in Australia for numerous years. I have bred over 57 Australian champions, 17 grand champions and 6 supreme champions, constantly breeding many all breeds.

Best in show #1 / all breeds Best in show #2 / Best in show speciality / ru Best in show speciality winners and group # 1 placements, in both long and smooth coat variety.

Positions of responsibilities in the dog world

– ANKC group 1 (toy group) co-ordinator - trainer of new judges, this position I have had for a number of years. ANKC championship judge for group 1 (toy breeds), group 6 (utility breeds) & group 7 (non-sporting breeds). ANKC open show judge group 2 (terriers) and training group 4 (hounds). Junior handler / showmanship judge. Longtime secretary Chihuahua club of QLD, show secretary toy dog club of QLD and active working member in all breeds club.

Tell us something about your judging different breeds in other countries

I have judged in all states of Australia, overseas - most recently New Zealand (north & south islands) and Japan. Looking forward to my first trip to Finland

Your Chihuahua judging, when and where?

Chihuahua speciality shows in Victoria (Australia), Perth (Australia) and Japan (Tsu city).

With what kind of feelings are you waiting for our speciality?

I am excited for my first appointment in Finland and getting to judge my own breed with many new experiences. I enjoy meeting new breeders and seeing the dogs they have bred, I am really looking forward to seeing the dogs in Europe.

Your regards to people attending our show

Hoping many people will travel to enter and attend show, I am really looking forward to seeing a huge variety of quality exhibits. Hoping for wonderful sportsmanship from and between exhibitors attending with happy dogs.
